Dear Mr. Young,

I am writing this letter with the hope that a few words will approach the level of gratitude and appreciation that I feel in my heart for the services that you provided to me in my personal injury lawsuit against [REDACTED]. You have given new meaning to the word, "Advocate".

When [REDACTED] was forthcoming with an initial offering, I was prepared to accept that offer and be done with it. However, you insisted on going back with a counter proposal, and finally came to an agreement for an amount that exceeded any expectation that I may have had in my mind.

Your fee and retainer were very fair, and I am completely satisfied with the way that you handled every aspect of the case and the eventual transfer of funds into my personal bank account.

I will not hesitate to recommend you and your firm to any one that I may know in need of legal services.

May God richly bless you and your firm in all future endeavors.

Sincerely and Respectfully,

Michael V. [REDACTED]
